These entries were taken from Microfilm no. 11 , reel 1 at Wisconsin State Historical society branch library ,area research center at Univ. of Wisc. at Whitewater, Wisconsin.. Church records start in 1849 & end in 1982.

Some of the entries may be incorrect. I translated them from german script, the best I could. Some of the ss's in a village name should be a capital B or P type letter meaning doubled S. Many zip code books and indexes etc. use the B in the village name. Some have " above a letter, which means a is sometimes left out or added at times. Some of the witnesses and godparents at end of baptism entries were left out.

I am tracing all families of Knick, Dobratz, Dobbratz, Prey, Zarnke, Wentzlerf, Wentsloff, Schuft, Grabowitz, etc. variations. plus Hielke.

SAUCE FOR COPIES

The following list is an unofficial passenger list for the ship Marina/Mary Ann, which left Hamburg June 20, 1863, and arrived in New York Aug. 5, 1863. It is a list from memory of Johann Heinrich Moldenhauer, written just 1900 & copied in 1910 by Ralph Dornfield Owen. Extra notes have been written in on right hand margin. Hans Ruetter the historian, says the ship then departed for Mobile, Alabama under John F. Phillips. The official passenger list has ever been found. The Marine Journal of Aug. 7, 1863 shows the ship was in 10 days from Hamburg. Actual ship log says 15 days. Marine Journal also shows a Hamburg brig, Neptune, capt. Detrickson follows from Amsterdam.

This ship also had old Lutherans on it and can not be found at National archives. Other ports that need to be checked for a passenger list for these two ships is Richmond Va., New Orleans La., and Galveston, Texas, and ports north of New York. The ship Arch arriving at New York Sept. 8, 1863 also has old Lutherans on its passenger list. The ship Isaac Newton arrived Sept. 12, 1863 with old Lutherans from Brandenburg province. Reminds Christian Dornfield from Alt Glattstein & family and Christian Dornfield from Alt Rodete & family were on the ship Isaac Newton. Eugene Cuman another Old Lutheran historian says other ships that carried old Lutherans to the U.S. in 1863 were: Vandenshoren Roy (8/19), Ratibow (8/26), Belona (9/6), Howard (9/8), Beccine (9/12), Soprina (9/13), Sir Isaac Newton (10/20), Stephen (12/31) and possibly Washington (8/29), Proxima (9/7), Concor (9/30), Franklin (10/13) & Maria (11/1). August H. Steifrow another Old Lutheran historian says the ships that carried old Lutherans to the U.S. in 1839 were: Sir Isaac Newton (9/17), Hanselore (8/19), Christine Louise (8/19), Caroline (8/27), Wilhelmine Marie (9/17), & Franklin (9/18). The last two ships seem to have passengers from Bavaria instead of Prussia. Forget 1863 ship Bark Balto (8/21). 1873

Some of these families may be related to other similar surname families in the area.

Most of the lines I've traced go back to the same county or a 25 mile radius area in Germany.

1950 U.S. census, Irenia Pw., Dodge Co., Wis.. From typed notes at the Public Library in Watertown, Wis.. (These notes seem to have disappeared before or after moving into new library area). The corrections are noted. Only the German families were noted. There may be errors in the corrections. These lists may have been typed by Ralph Benfield Olsen. Some hand written corrections were added by Allen F. Schwaefel. I crossed these lists a few years ago and they are false. Edited by Martin W. Johnson, S.W. Pennington, Belding, Illinois 11/10/1916. I'm tracing Knick, Dolbratz/Dobrats, Frey, /Krazer ancestors from in & around Watertown etc.. parent-basis that are blank in middle - even possibly error. (Not as many corrections in this typical census as were in the typed /Krazer census. Watch for errors (in original & corrections. (J.H. Ott made some notes.

1870 Pierce Co. Nebraska census, by Martin Wm. Johnson. Ad this to the 1870 Madison Co., Nebraska census by E. Evelyn Cox, I sent you. Mrs. Cox died. These two county censuses should be published in your newsletters. Several of the Pierce Co., Neb. families had children married in Madison Co., Neb.. Some people went on to the Colorado Gold rush. My copy of the 1870 census is very faint in spots, so watch out for errors in names & ages. As usual the census taker probably made a few errors himself.

FOUR OLDEST DOBRATZ & DOBRATZ FAMILIES
PLUS A COUPLE OTHER AREA ENTRIES.

The Dobratz & Dobratz families around the United States almost always come from villages within a 15 mile radius of Schwelbeln, east of Stettin & south of the Baltic Sea. Since Schwelbeln is a large town compared to the very small rural villages around it, Schwelbeln may have been given as a birth place by many who left this arch. Some of these small villages did not have a church, so the nearby parish has to be found in a neighboring village, town or city.

Watertown area Dobratz & Dobratz seem to have come from villages of Schwelbeln, Sternin, Gross Jentzin, Kolpin, Neuhoft, Treptow Rega, Halm, Dargischaff, Plaunewitz. The parish for Sternin was at Resalkow. Many of the Dobratz / Dobratz were brick layers in Germany. This may be why so many children were born in different places in the area. They probably moved to new job sites in the area.

There is one remaining Archives in Europe that needs to be checked for church records. This is the Archiv der Pommerischen Evangelischen Kirche in Greifswald, East Germany. It originally covered the north west part of present day Poland & the North East part of East Germany.

There are four possible brothers or cousins who came to America. Christoph Fri. Chr. Dobratz - born June 10, 1798 in Sternin. His wife was Friederike Hoppe - born Oct. 24, 1800. This is Lebanon, Wisc. line. Christoph Daniel Dobratz - born Oct. 22, 1805 in Sternin or Kolpin.

His wife was Johann L. Prey or Preh - born Sept. 9, 1812 in Kolberg town or county. This is one of the Watertown lines. Gottlieb Gottlieb Dobratz - born May 25, 1809 in Schwelbeln. His wife was Henriette Caroline - born May 19, 1810. This is Acoma & Lynne Twp.

Sophia Fromming - born Nov. 19, 1810. This is Acoma & Lynne Twp. McLeod Co., Minn. line. Carl Christoph Dobratz - born Dec. 9, 1813 in Sternin. His wife was M. Ernestine Schultze - born May 29, 1813. This is

is the Concord, Wisconsin line. Each of the previously mentioned

Dobratz / Dobratz lines had several children. Some lines named their children with similar first names and several middle names. When they got to the U.S. they usually went by the last middle name closest to their surname in a baptismal entry in the church records. A few Dobratz families in other states came from east of Schwelbeln a 100 miles or so away. It will be interesting someday to find out how the four oldest Dobratz / Dobratz are related to each other, and where they came from three or four hundred years ago. Maybe east, south or west. Each year more Lutheran & Catholic church records are being microfilmed in libraries & archives in West & East Germany & Poland every year, by the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City, Utah. It would be easier to write a history of the Dobratz etc. families if more of the Lutheran etc. church records were microfilmed & made accessible by descendants & researchers, before they are lost thru fire, floods, tornadoes, mold, fading ink, brittle crumbling pages, theft, vandalism, war etc.. Those old church records usually have membership lists, births, deaths, marriages etc. that give parents names & the exact village in Europe they were born in. There are only a few churches church records in Watertown and the rural areas that are not on microfilm & accessible. Your help in getting any church records microfilmed by the Genealogical Library, or Wisconsin state Historical Society, or a Church Synod archives, would be appreciated.

The Genealogical Library has microfilmed some Watertown, Wisconsin church records free of charge & given the churches a free microfilm copy. A few more cemeteries need to be transcribed, before inscriptions wear away. DOROTHEA (below listed) was wife of CHRISTIAN. SHE DIED 1858 OF AGE 81. SHE DIED AT RESEVILLE FAMILY HOME. JOHANN CHRISTIAN GOTTILF DOBRATZ - born Dec. 18, 1801 in LEON, POMMERANIA wife a GAULKE. DIED 1875 KIRCHHAYN. MARTIN CHRISTOPH HEINRICH DOBRATZ born Dec. 7, 1810 in KIRCHHAYN, POMMERANIA. DIED MAY 25, 1876 in KIRCHHAYN, WISC.. DOROTHEA (TINN) DOBRATZ BORN JUNE 2, 1785 in KALLYIN, POMMER.
